Twenty-Four (24) members present at the membership meeting.

January 7th, 2020—Our 2020 Planning Meeting was held at Western Sizzlin at 6pm, Towson Ave. Thirteen (13) members present for the meeting. We discussed many new/old issues and planned for the future year.

2020 Dues

$20.00

Fort Smith Museum of History

We have been working with the Museum for the possibility of setting up a display in one of their display cases. This would also give us an opportunity to have a car show at the Museum for promoting our display. Further information will be given at the next Monthly Meeting.

Supplies for Pantry

Some supplies still needed for the pantry:

Soft drinks and plastic tablecloths (3) per meeting color white

Dollar Tree has them for $1.00

June Meeting

We will hold our June Meeting at The D'Armond's home as they are having us for a Cook-Out on June 6th.

Upcoming Events

Valentines Dinner

February 6, 6PM Taliano's Restaurant 50th Anniversary Special. We only had 20 seats reserved due to another large group reservation. Seating is full.

Health Concerns

Harold Yates reported his daughter received a good report.

Jimmy Hignight is now residing at the Methodist Nursing Home.

Carl Albertson was having a heart ablation the day after meeting and all went well.

2020 FSAAC Club Tours

We still have the following months that are open for Club Tours:

May, July, August and December (Christmas Party)

The Gray's have asked that we come back to their home in Mountainburg. This could be a trip where we incorporate a lunch at Grandma's House Café in Windslow, AR.

We will have sign up sheets and suggestions on places to go at the next meeting.
